Good afternoon,

We completed your move this afternoon, and when the driver came back and was going through his paperwork he realized that he over charged you by a half hour the corrected amount for your move is 3.75 hours x $98.00=$367.50 with a 5% discount of $18.38 making your total for your move $349.12. If it is possible could you mail us a check with the corrected dollar amount and we can either shred your check or write void across it and mail it back to you. Please let us know at your earliest convenience.

Dear Ms. Rickenback,

Thank you for your honesty. It's refreshing to see this kind of professional courtesy and integrity in this day and age. It was an honest mistake, and I appreciate your promptly correcting it.

Please shred the check I wrote Wednesday. I am mailing you a new check for the amended amount, $349.12.

Thanks again. Your company's performance and employees live up to the name.

Sincerely,

Dan Hill [REDACTED]
