Dear Andrew:

I wanted to confirm in writing how much I appreciate the patience and consideration of you and your father in helping me resolve the Project Freedom storage problem over the last months.

By working with us in a conciliatory way, I believe all those involved were able to protect their respective interests and arrive at a mutually acceptable resolution.

Having been engaged in similar situations over many years, I know firsthand that such satisfactory solutions are not always found.

My best wishes to you for continued success. The attitude and ethic of you and your associates reflect very well the implied promise of your company name.

Thanks again.

Sincerely,

Cc: Mr. Gil Rice – Project Freedom
